

Defense Finance and Accounting Service- DFAS Statement

Active military, Reserve and National Guard members will be paid on time for pay entitlements earned Jan. 19 or earlier. Military members cannot be paid for duty performed after the expiration of the Continuing Resolution Authority on Jan. 19. Once a CRA or another appropriations act is signed into law, normal disbursement of military pay will resume.

Military retirees and annuitants are not paid from appropriations, so those payments will continue as scheduled.

---

  Defense Finance and Accounting Service - DFAS
Yesterday at 10:31 PM ·

Active military, Reserve and National Guard members will be paid on time for pay entitlements earned Jan. 19 or earlier. Military members cannot be paid for duty performed after the expiration of the Continuing Resolution Authority on Jan. 19. Once a CRA or another appropriations act is signed into law, normal disbursement of military pay will resume.

Military retirees and annuitants are not paid from appropriations, so those payments will continue as scheduled.

---

 Defense Finance and Accounting Service - DFAS
Yesterday at 1:31am ·

Department of Defense travelers: During the government shutdown, travel expenses incurred through Jan. 19 are payable. The travel expenses incurred by travelers promptly complying with orders to return to their duty station after Jan. 19 will be reimbursable as costs of the orderly shutdown of operations and will be paid after appropriations are enacted.

If immediate return is not possible, then return must be accomplished as soon as is practical. If a traveler is directed to return and fails to promptly do so, the traveler is responsible for additional expenses incurred. Travelers who remain TDY after Jan. 19 in direct support of an excepted activity, will be reimbursed for their expenses after appropriations are enacted.